Policeman Dunne to bring the young ganizations with which she is identified woman into court.

Under the pretense that he was tak ing her to a house which Dr. Kendry had purchased for her, Dunne led Miss Hedrick before the Magistrate. There she refused to answer to her name and insisted that she was the wife of Dr. Kendry. She became unruly and it was with considerable force that she was led to the van, which conveyed her to the Queens County Jail. There she will be held until she can be committed to the State Hospital for the Insane.

DENY WITNESSING WILL.

Contest for $50,000 Estate Based on Queer Statement.

RIVERHEAD, L. I., April 16.—Elbert C. Livingston and Julia T. Livingston. claim that the will is improperly exe-cuted. The instrument is witnessed by Henry P. Caril and Frank Baldwin, but these men say they have no knowledge of acting in any such capacity.

The contestants are not mentioned in the will, but should it be broken they would share in one half of the estate. The will makes bequests to the Presby-terian Church of Huntington and the Board of Home Missions of that church. The estate is valued at $50,000.

special to The Evening World. RIVERHEAD, L. I., April 16.—The will of Adolph F. Braidich has been probated in Suffolk County. The testator had a summer residence at Babylon. The estate, valued at $300,000 personal and $75,000 real property, is di-vided among relatives and charities, the Charity Organization Society getting $25,000, while various amounts are given to institutions in Austria. The Society off the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, of New York, receives $10.00. The principal bequests to relatives are $100,000 to Olga Blasig, $100,000 to James C. Shaw, $25,000 to Edward J. Young and $10,000 each to Charles E. Rosewear and Oscar Roetter.

More Flattering Triumphs For the April Undermuslin Sale.

The Great April Sale is a record-breaker. Crowds daily. But it isn't a whit surprising. Every tribute you pay this masterful occasion is thoroughly deserved.

It's the kind of sale women of discriminating tastes patronize with unfeigned enthusiasm for numerous reasons.

Why It Is Such a Success.

1. The quantities are tremendous. The lots were not intended for one or two days' selling, but to cover a period that would result in giving shoppers the utmost satisfaction in every respect.

2. Everything is new, fresh and in the very acme of style. No garment is unworthy; none 3. Lowness of price is one of the conspicuous features of this important occasion. But in no instance is the character of the garment slighted for the sake of price. You See How the Underwear Is Made.

4. The demonstration of underwear making is a distinct innovation in retailing. Sixteen skilled operators at fast running electric sewing machines making undergarments in view of customers is a sight full of novelty and interest. You can buy this underwear as it comes off the machines if you like.

Negligee Sarments.

The Underwear for Children Is Specially Attractive.

The various lots for children comprise crisp undermuslins with all those dainty sparkles of refinement and prettiness so delighting to the mother's eye and so comforting to the tiny men and women who wear them. Your criticisms of these garments are sure to be the pleasantest sort of complimentary comment.
